NOTES

1. Who and for what reason is responsible for the completion of this Declaration

In accordance with the Special Contribution for the Defence of the Republic Law N. 117(1) of 2002, companies resident in Cyprus are obliged to deduct special contribution for the defence at the rate of 15% from dividends paid or deemed to have been paid to shareholders who are tax resident of Cyprus.

Companies paying or deemed to pay dividend/s must go through their shareholders Registry to determine the names of dividend beneficiaries who are not resident of Cyprus and then to complete this Declaration to inform the Department of the Inland Revenue that they have not deducted any Defence Contribution for dividends paid or deemed to have been paid to the aforementioned beneficiaries.

2. Where to submit the Declaration

This Declaration must be completed in two copies and signed by the company every time a dividend is paid or is deemed to be paid. The original copy is submitted to the Department of the Inland Revenue together with the statement of dividends (form I.R.61AMA)2004 and the second copy is to be kept by the company.

The company undertakes to permit the Commissioner or his/her authorized representative to examine the relevant questionnaire/s (form I.R.42 Q) 2004 and any accompanying documents at its premises or upon the Commissioner's request, to submit to the Commissioner the aforementioned or a true copy of them.

3. Who are considered to be Cyprus residents

Cyprus residents are considered to be :

- (a) Individuals who reside in Cyprus for one or more periods which exceed in total 183 days during a tax year and
- (b) Legal Persons whose control and management are exercised in Cyprus.

4. The Processing of Personal Data (Protection of Individuals) Law of 2001

The Department of Inland Revenue maintains a Registry with which the personal data of Cyprus tax payers is filed, for the purpose of implementing Tax Legislation.

A publication was put through the Media relating to the operation of the Registry, in accordance with the Processing of Personal Data (Protection of Individuals) Law of 2001.

According to the above, the Department may use the data contained in the Declaration in order to :

- Check the accuracy of information
- Prevent or detect crime
- Protect public funds.
