1. BACKGROUND

The European Defence Agency (EDA) was established on 12 July 2004, and is governed by Council Decision (CFSP) 2015/1835 defining the statute, seat and operational rules of the European Defence Agency. The Agency has its headquarters in Brussels.

The main task of EDA is to support the Council and the Member States in their effort to improve the Union's defence capabilities in the field of crisis management and to sustain the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP) as it currently stands and as it develops in the future.

The Agency is structured into four directorates. The Corporate Services Directorate (CSD) and three operational directorates: Industry, Synergies and Enablers (ISE); Capability, Armament & Planning (CAP); Research, Technology and Innovation (RTI).

2. THE AGENCY'S WAY OF WORKING

The Agency is an "outward-facing" organisation, constantly interacting with its shareholders, the participating Member States, as well as with a wide range of stakeholders. It works in an integrated way, with multi-disciplinary teams representing all of the Agency's functional areas, to realise its objectives. Its business processes are flexible and oriented towards achieving results. Staff at all levels need to demonstrate the corresponding qualities of commitment, flexibility, innovation, and team-working; to work effectively with shareholders and stakeholder groups, formal and informal; and to operate without the need for detailed direction.

3. THE CORPORATE SERVICES DIRECTORATE

The Corporate Services Directorate (CSD) provides critical business support to EDA operations by delivering high-quality corporate services under 5 dedicated units, namely: Human Resources; Procurement and Contract Management; Finance; IT and Information Management together with Security and Infrastructure Management. Additionally, the EDA Legal Team provides legal, data protection and institutional advice and checks to its management relating to the fulfilment of Agency objectives. The EDA Programme Manager and Corporate Projects Officer provides a leadership role in, and a focal point for, good practice in Project, Programme and Risk Management. Finally, the Record Manager is responsible for the effective and appropriate management of information produced and/or received by the organisation.

CSD processes are geared towards efficient and optimal use of resources, leveraging good practice and technological solutions while ensuring sound financial management, transparency and accountability; outward focus and commitment to continuous improvement are the hallmarks of CSD.

4. DUTIES

Under the supervision of the Head of the Procurement and Contract Unit, the Procurement and Contract Officer will, contribute to the following activities:

- administer public procurement procedures in compliance with the Agency's Financial & Public Procurement Rules, which entails, i.a.:
 - planning assigned procurement activities by liaising with the relevant internal stakeholders;
 - advising project officers on the timeline, legal base, type of procurement procedure, contractual set-up and special clauses;
 - drafting notes for the file, calls for tenders, awarding documents, contracts and amendments;
 - ensuring quality and compliance of the procurement dossiers and procedures with the EDA legal framework, procurement strategy and established practices;
 - providing support to the relevant Units/Directorates to manage contract matters, issues and risks.
- manage ad-hoc activities, which entails, i.a.:
 - negotiating and drafting ad-hoc Project and Programme Arrangements (PAs);
 - ensuring compliance of the PAs with the EDA financial rules and practice as well as with the existing EU legal framework governing, i.a: financial and fiscal incentives in defence, export control, intellectual property rights, classified information;
 - administering public procurement activities under signed PAs;
 - negotiating and drafting complex contracts to be concluded by the Agency to implement ad-hoc PAs;
 - providing support to the Operational Directorates in charge of ad-hoc activities by ensuring timely and regular implementation of PA and contractual provisions;
 - providing contractual guidance to project officers and external stakeholders (Member States, contractors) as required;
 - participating in the maintenance and development of the Agency's ad-hoc procedures, templates and tools.
- provide guidance and training on EDA's contracting activities to EDA staff;
- contribute to the drafting /revising of the Unit's internal procedures;
- conduct analyses on complex legal issues to support informed decision-making;
- take on additional tasks as required in the interest of the service.

Duties may evolve according to the development of EDA's structure and activities, and the decisions of EDA management.

5. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be considered eligible to take part in this selection procedure, on the closing date for the submission of applications candidates must satisfy all the eligibility criteria as specified below:

- be a national of a Member State participating in the Agency;
- be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen;
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed on him/her by the laws concerning military service;
- produce the appropriate character references as to his/her suitability for the performance of his/her duties (extract from the “judicial record” or certificate of good conduct will be requested prior to recruitment);
- be physically fit to perform his/her duties;
- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1 oral and written) of one of the languages of the participating Member States and a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2 oral and written) of another of these languages to the extent necessary to discharge his/her duties;
- have no personal interest (financial, family relationship, or other) which could be in conflict with disinterested discharge of his/her duties within the Agency;
- hold, or be in a position to obtain, a valid Personnel Security Clearance Certificate (national or EU PSC at SECRET UE/EU SECRET level). Personnel Security Clearance Certificate (PSCC) means a certificate issued by a competent authority establishing that an individual is security cleared and holds a valid national or EU PSC, and which shows the level of EUCI to which that individual may be granted access (SECRET UE/EU SECRET), the date of validity of the relevant PSC and the date of expiry of the certificate itself. Note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSCC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate;
